"Golden Medical Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics. It is not a stimulant but a strengthening medicine. "After using about five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery my boy seems to be all right," writes Mr. J. W. Price, of Oark, Monroe Co., Ohio. "He was very bad when I commenced to give him the Golden Medical Discovery. The doctor claimed he had consumption, and we doctored with him until he was past walking. It has been ten months since he stopped taking your medicine and he is still in good health. We are very thankful to you for saving our son."

Children appreciate Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're easy to take and do not gripe.

EX CONFEDERATES NOT TO BE BARRED.

—Hon. William J. Bryan in today's issue of the Commonwealth deprecates the tendency of the two leading political parties to nominate men from doubtful States, sometimes regardless of their fitness. Mr. Bryan complains that New York, Illinois, Ohio and Indiana have been given too much consideration in the past. He regrets that the southern States have been so long ignored and says it is time that the south and the west were given more attention. Mr. Bryan concludes as follows: "If someone living south of the Mason-Dixon line is chosen for the first or second place on the ticket his place of residence will not weaken him, though he be an ex-Confederate soldier. We are engaged in a mighty struggle against plutocracy and we need the whole nation to pick from when we select our standard-bearer. Merit, not region, should determine the nomination; fidelity to principle, not locality, should control."

In a public statement Mr. Bryan gives his version of the story that Aguinaldo promised him financial assistance in his campaign last year. Mr. Bryan says that while he was in New York two Filipinos sent a request to counter with him. He declined to meet them, and sent a friend to explain that he did not think it proper to hold a conference. The Filipinos said Aguinaldo was willing to issue a proclamation promising to lay down arms in case of Mr. Bryan's election, and also willing to contribute to the democratic campaign fund, but Mr. Bryan refused to consider either proposition and did not require the Filipinos to furnish any evidence of their right to represent Aguinaldo.

LIONESSES AT LARGE.—A lioness was at large in a thickly settled part of Bridgeport, Conn., for a few hours yesterday morning. Tuesday Sawtelle's circus exhibited there on a lot near Seaside Park. Some time after midnight the door of one of the cages containing the lions was found open and a lioness kept there was missing. A search was made at once and the animal was found crouched in the doorway of the A. M. E. Zion Church on Broad Street. People were passing that place frequently and word was sent to police headquarters and a number of patrolmen were sent out to keep pedestrians away. The arrangements were made to capture the animal. Ropes and chains were a curd and all the circus employees were called together. It was proposed to make a combined attack on the animal, but before that was done two of the men familiar with the handling of lions rushed in and succeeded in getting a rope in such a position around the lioness's body that she was held and secured without much difficulty. There was trouble between the management of the circus and the canvassers and five were discharged. It is supposed that one of them sneaked into the tent at night and opened the door to the cage. The escaped lioness was one born in captivity and not regarded as particularly vicious, but far from safe to be at large in the city streets.

THE LATEST SNAKE STORY.—Word of a remarkable Dismal Swamp snake story, the result of which was the death of Grant Wilkins, a negro, reached Suffolk, Va., yesterday evening. The victim was literally choked to death in his sleep by a long black snake, Wilkins, whose home was in North Carolina, had started through the swamp alone to look after a single timber. The weather being warm, he sat down by a big juniper tree to refresh himself and fell asleep. When found Wilkins was dead. Nearly three feet of live snake were protruding from his mouth. By his side were an empty beer bottle and a sardine box, remnant of his luncheon. Wilkins's neck was swollen, his eyes protruded, and an expression of agony was on his face. It took the strength of three men to pull the snake from the corpse. Its head and two feet of the body were inside. The reptile was killed. It is supposed that Wilkins was sleeping with his mouth open and the snake took it for a hole that needed investigation. Another theory is that the snake was attracted by sardines.

TO MAKE A GOOD GINGER BEER.—Ginger beer is very easily made, and is a most inexpensive beverage. Thoroughly peel two lemons and a Seville orange, squeeze the juice, and put into a large jar, add 2 ounces of whole ginger bread, one ounce of cream of tartar, 2 pounds of hot sugar. Pour over three gallons of boiling water, and leave till only milk warm, and then stir in two and a half tablespoons of brewers' yeast. Cover the jar and leave to work for twelve hours. Then strain well and bottle in screw-top bottles, otherwise the gas must be secured with wire. Lay these bottles in a cool place, and after forty-eight hours the beer is ready to drink.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Cough or Cold at once. Coughs Croup, Whooping Cough and Measle Cough without fail. Best for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia, Consumption and Lung Affections. Give quick, sure results. Price 25c. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

The piles that annoy you so will be quickly and permanently healed if you use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless counterfeits. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
